

From The Dashboard Of Nash Rambler ~

It's official; your new adventure begins within the boundaries of The Esoteric Curiosa 2.0!

The Esoteric Curiosa 2.0 officially disrupts the historical research platform concept. Our revolutionary new website provides a community of like-minded historians who embrace the esoteric mindset and who look deeper into more obscure and nuanced subject matter, without leaving the comfort of their armchair. No longer will you as a specialized researcher be forced to do without the information you seek. It's truly a replete experience; and we are continuously looking for the newest and exciting innovations to enhance our format and daily activities for our members.

For those of you Esoteric who have committed yourself to the next chapter, a hearty welcome; you are warmly invited to avail yourselves to just a few of our unique features detailed below:

ESOTERIC PODCASTS ~ this exciting new feature for The Esoteric Curiosa 2.0 will be hosted a program by yours truly, Nash Rambler. Very reminiscent of my old radio shows on Aussie Talk Soup, where subscribers field me their esoteric questions for discussion and the sharing of esoteric information. Additional podcasts will cover various esoteric subjects reflected in posted articles.

ESOTERIC CHAT ~ this exciting feature will allow for direct communication via The Esoteric Curiosa 2.0 and allow closer communication with me to discuss esoteric subjects live.

ESOTERIC NEWSLETTER ~ this feature will present stand-alone esoteric subjects, published in newsletter form on the website. One enlightening feature will be interviews with the authors of many of the esoteric books from past Building Books posts, many of whom are members of the Nash Rambler Facebook page.

BOOK LOTTERY ~ this quarterly feature will present an opportunity for The Founder's Circle members who are interested in participating in a lottery for a chance to receive a free featured esoteric title.

LIFETIME MEMBERSHIP ~ For those of you became a member of The Founder's Circle prior to launch, your membership will allow continuous enjoyment of all the privileges, at your original subscription plan rate.
